

DRIVEN BY PASSIONS

2025 - 2028

Young People Leading Change

Building on Fryshuset's over 40 years of experience in youth participation and inclusion, this Sida funded 3-year 5-country programme will equip young people with the tools, networks, and platforms to engage in society.

Tackling challenges such as social isolation, lack of education, unemployment, and mental health challenges, this programme fosters resilience, strengthens democratic values, and promotes social cohesion.

AREA OF ACTION

The programme will be implemented in Eastern Partnership Countries (Armenia, Moldova, and Ukraine), and in Ethiopia and Kenya.

TARGET GROUP

12–25 years (marginalised, affected by poverty, conflict, violence and social exclusion).

THE GOAL

Young people can change the world through their passions.

THIS PROGRAMME WILL SUPPORT OUR PARTNER ORGANISATIONS TO:

Offer relevant activities, contributing to advocacy and policies that advance rights and opportunities of young people.

Strengthen operations, with well-supported staff and sustainable organisational structures.

Be representative and inclusive, ensuring active participation of marginalised.

Engage with young people with respect, attentiveness, and understanding.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

STRONGER RELATIONSHIPS

Young people build trust with adults and community leaders.

PEER-TO-PEER INFLUENCE

Youth-led initiatives drive positive relationships and community engagement.

ACTIVE CIVIC PARTICIPATION

Young people take on leadership roles in advocacy and policy influence.

FRYSHUSET

Fryshuset is a non-profit organisation, operating independently of any religious or political affiliations and is committed to supporting young people around the world, particularly those from marginalised communities or at risk of exclusion.

Visit the website and read the full application

fryshuset.se/plats/global/sida